

Bugs on the Offense, Bugs on the Defense Matching Game

Match the bugs on the left with their special offensive or defensive talents on the right. Take your best guesses first, and then use items on the display table to check your guesses and figure out the rest.

- |                           |  |
|---------------------------|--|
| 1. Walking stick          | _____ Attacks with sharp beak, sucks out body fluids |
| 2. Io or silk moth        | _____ Stings attacker with paralyzing poison         |
| 3. Bombardier beetle      | _____ Hides in a layer of bubbly foam                |
| 4. Wasp                   | _____ Hides by blending in with twigs and branches   |
| 5. Centipede              | _____ Bright orange wings warn that it's poisonous   |
| 6. Thorn bug              | _____ Sprays attacker with hot chemicals             |
| 7. Assassin beetle        | _____ Blends in with thorns on plants                |
| 8. Bola spider            | _____ Spears prey using spiny forelegs               |
| 9. Emperor moth           | _____ Scares attackers with large "eyes" on wings    |
| 10. Praying mantis        | _____ Catches moths on nearly invisible sticky silk  |
| 11. Spittlebug            | _____ Chases attackers away with terrible smell      |
| 12. Hawk moth caterpillar | _____ Kills with poison claws                        |
| 13. Monarch butterfly     | _____ Scares attackers by looking like a snake       |

